Community awareness of autism has risen, and companies and colleges are taking notice.

Bestselling author, autism advocate, and animal science professor Dr. Temple Grandin joins psychologist and autism specialist Dr. Debra Moore in spelling out which steps you can take to restore your child's hope and motivation - and what you must avoid. Eight life stories told by people on the autism spectrum, including chapters on subjects like how to get kids off their computers, how to build on their strengths and get back to caring about their lives, and how to find a path to a successful, meaningful life make this a "must read book!"

MUSIC THERAPY WITH PRESCHOOL CHILDREN ON THE AUTISM SPECTRUM

Moments of Meeting

Geoff Barnes

Early Childhood Education Series

Drawing upon video recordings from 16 months in a preschool classroom, this book depicts the emerging relationships and abilities that develop through musical play with children on the autism spectrum. Barnes explores connections among students, teachers, and a music therapist; broader questions about the needs of young children; and the benefits of incorporating music therapy in early childhood education and school-based autism services.

This important book raises key issues about autism supports and therapies, and offers encouraging alternatives to prevailing educational and therapeutic methods.

Features:

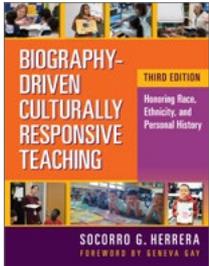

- Chronicles the first two-year research study inside a music therapy group for preschoolers on the spectrum.
- Provides lucid personal portrayals of young children, teachers, and a music therapist.
- Explores the challenges and encouraging possibilities of helping young children through music.
- Describes the use of picture schedules, augmentative and alternative communication devices, musical instruments, percussion rhythms, and visual and tactile materials in music sessions.
- Presents children's engagement in vocal interplay, turn-taking, theme-and-variation exchanges, and reciprocal expressions of emotion in early childhood education.
