IN-CLASS FLIP

A Student-Centred Approach to Differentiated Learning

Martha A. Ramirez & Carolina R. Buitrago

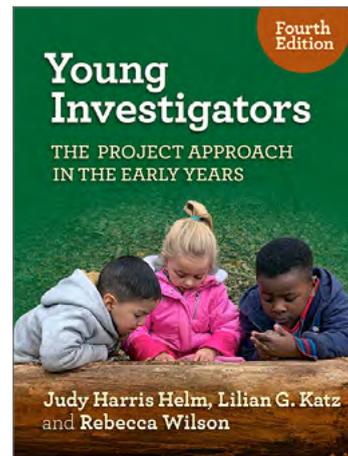

Written by two passionate teachers who have spent years testing this innovative approach to flipped learning, the book provides practical strategies and examples that support an effective in-class flip. Breaking down the idea of the in-class flip, the authors demonstrate how it differs from traditional flipped learning, and walk teachers through the many possibilities of this new approach, with details on how to implement it successfully from scratch.

This book is suitable for early childhood, primary and secondary educators.

CHILD CARE JUSTICE

Transforming the System of Care for Young Children

Edited by Maurice Sykes & Kyra Ostendorf

The Teaching for Social Justice Series

Join the authors of this book in starting a movement of hope and possibility for an antiracist child care and early childhood education system. This volume disrupts mental models regarding where the work of early care and education began and how the stigma of that beginning relegates present-day child care workers to a low-status field of practice.

THE SIX PRIORITIES

How to Find the Resources Your School Community Needs

Luis Eladio Torres

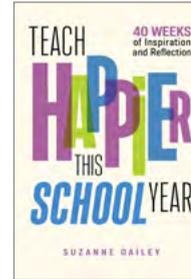

Challenges a common assumption: that education is the “first priority” for families, including those who are raising their children in low-income, high-need communities. Instead, the author argues that these families must confront daunting challenges in five other areas - food, shelter, safety, health, and access to technology—before they can focus on their children’s education.

DUCK AND COVER

Confronting and Correcting Dubious Practices in Education

Rick Ginsberg & Yong Zhao

Explores a wide range of what the authors label 'duck and cover' policies - ideas that may have started for good reasons but whose usefulness has declined over time, ideas that may lack sound theoretical foundations or long-term evidence, ideas that violate basic logic and reasoning or cause serious and proven damage.

EDUCATION FOR LIBERAL DEMOCRACY

Using Classroom Discussion to Build Knowledge and Voice

Walter C. Parker

Multicultural Education Series

Democracy is in crisis. Both political trust and a shared standard of truth are broken. In this book, Walter Parker shows why and how a civic education can help. Offering a centrist approach suitable for a polarised society, Parker focuses on two linked curriculum objectives: disciplinary knowledge and voice.

THE POWER OF COMMUNITY-ENGAGED TEACHER PREPARATION

Voices and Visions of Hope and Healing

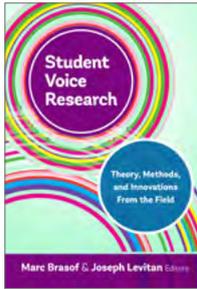

Edited by Patricia Clark et al

Discover how and why community-engaged teacher preparation is a powerful and vital approach to address an educational system that is historically deficient, discriminatory, and decidedly inequitable. In this edited volume, the authors argue that past practice is inadequate and issue a mandate for a new approach to educator preparation.

WHY KNOWLEDGE MATTERS

Rescuing Our Children from Failed Educational Theories

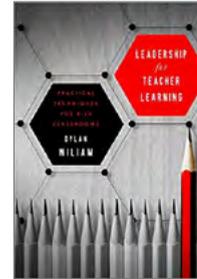

E.D. Hirsch, Jr.

Addresses critical issues in contemporary education reform and shows how cherished truisms about education and child development have led to unintended and negative consequences. The author argues that a carefully planned, knowledge-based elementary curriculum is essential to providing the foundations for children's life success.
