Feb 2021 320pp

9780815738947 Paperback £39.50 / €43.00

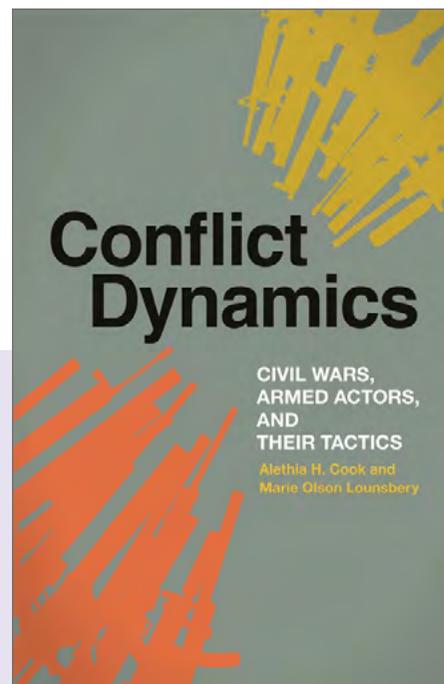

The Chatham House Insights Series

The 'decline of the West' is once again a topic of speculation. Often cited as one element of the alleged decline is the succession of prolonged and unsuccessful wars. This book by military experts examines not only the validity of the speculation but also asks why the West, particularly its military effectiveness, might be perceived as in decline.

DESIRE AND IMITATION IN INTERNATIONAL POLITICS

Jodok Troy

Mar 2021 166pp

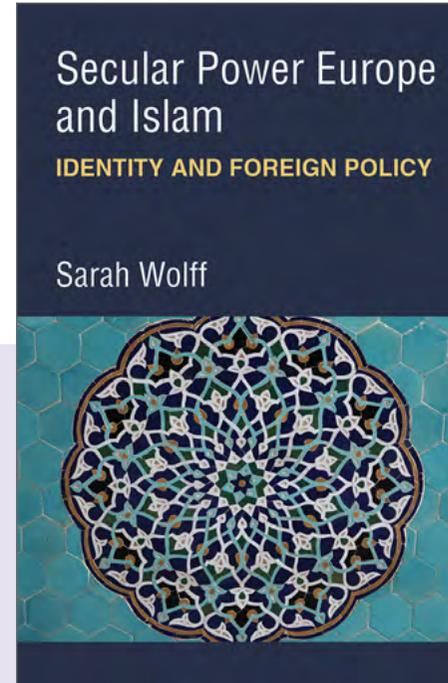

9781611863888 Paperback £19.95 / €22.00

Studies in Violence, Mimesis, and Culture

Imitating the desire of others is inherent to the struggle for power in international politics. The imitation of desire is a human trait seldom recognised in International Relations studies, let alone conceptualised. This volume not only contributes to the study of conflict based on the imitation of the desire of others among international politics, but also proposes in its conceptualisation that it is worth looking at studies of agency and structure, normative change, peace, and reconciliation.

SECULAR POWER EUROPE AND ISLAM*Identity and Foreign Policy*

Sarah Wolff

Jun 2021 208pp

9780472132539 Hardback £54.95 / €62.00

Argues that secularism is not the central principle of international relations but should be considered as one belief system that influences international politics. Through an exploration of Europe's secular identity, Sarah Wolff shows how Islam confronts the EU's existential anxieties about its security and its secular identity. This book argues that the EU's interest and diplomacy activities in relation to religion, and to Islam specifically, is shaped by the insistence on a European secular identity, which should be reconsidered in areas of religion and foreign policy.

THE DEMISE OF ARMS CONTROL

Non-Compliance and the New World Order

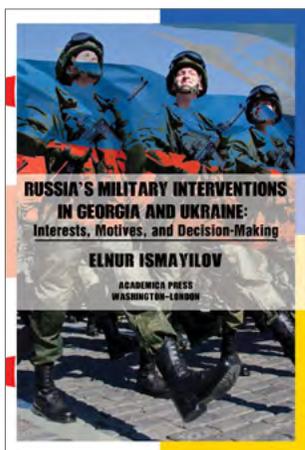

Victor Ofofu

Feb 2021 120pp
9781680539165 Hardback
£143.00 / €152.00

St. James's Studies in World Affairs

The failure of six countries to reach an agreement in the Six-Party Talks on Korea has shown the futility of negotiations to denuclearise North Korea. As Victor Ofofu shows in this timely new study, diplomacy failed because nuclear reversal is not in Pyongyang security, regional, or economic interests.

RED ARCTIC

Russian Strategy Under Putin

Elizabeth Buchanan

Nov 2021 300pp
9780815738886 Paperback £29.95 / €34.00

Renewed tensions between Russia and the West have fuelled speculation that Moscow's apparent designs on the Arctic region could help stimulate a new cold war. This book by a noted expert shifts the debate over Russia's strategy from what Moscow could do in the Arctic to the realities of what Putin's Russia likely will do.

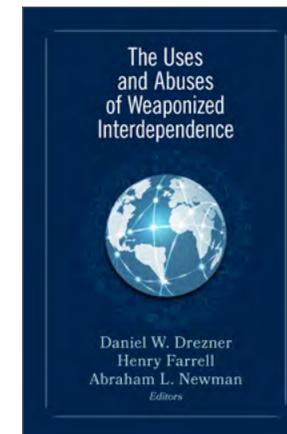

RIVALRY AND RESPONSE

Great Power Dynamics in Southeast Asia

Edited by Jonathan Stromseth

May 2021 210pp
9780815739142 Paperback £39.95 / €44.00

Examines the strategic landscape, domestic governance trends, and economic challenges in Southeast Asia. Among other findings, the authors express concern that US policy has become too concentrated on defense and security, to the detriment of diplomacy and development, allowing China to fill the soft power vacuum.

Balancing Domestic & Global Interests

Beth Elise Whitaker & John F. Clark

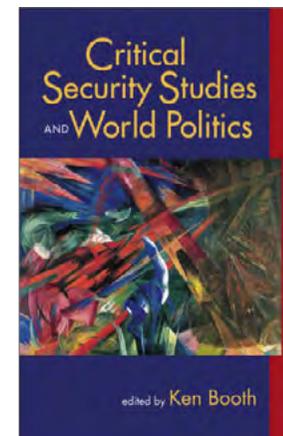

2018 418pp

9781626377370 Paperback

£24.95 / €32.00

Comprehensive and engaging, this timely introduction to Africa's international relations explores how power, interests, and ideas influence interactions both among the continent's states and between

African states and other actors in the global arena. This is an ideal text for students, as well as an invaluable resource for researchers and policymakers.

CRITICAL SECURITY STUDIES AND WORLD POLITICS

Edited by Ken Booth

2004 300pp

9781555878269 Paperback

£21.95 / €25.00

Realist assumptions of security studies have been increasingly challenged by an approach that places the human being, rather than the state, at the centre of security concerns. This book is structured around three concepts - security, community, and emancipation - that arguably are central to the future shape of world politics.

INTERNATIONAL ORDER

A Political History

Stephen A. Kocs

2019 261pp

9781626378117 Paperback £21.95 / €27.00

Where does international order come from? How is it established and maintained? Why does it break down? With every sovereign state its own master, how can order prevail? Answering these questions in a briskly paced, systematic survey, Stephen Kocs explores the rise and fall of successive international systems across the centuries.

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Margaret P. Karns, Karen A. Mingst & Kendall W. Stiles

2015 650pp

9781626371514 Paperback £26.95 / €38.00

The third edition of the award-winning International Organizations has been thoroughly revised and updated to take into account new developments and shifting power relations since 2009, as well as the most current scholarship. As before, the authors provide a comprehensive, in-depth examination of the full range of international organisations.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONSFrom the Cold War to the Globalized World

Andreas Wenger & Doron Zimmermann

2003 405pp

9781588260741 Paperback £19.95 / €23.00

Tracing the evolution of international relations since the onset of the Cold War, this volume draws on archival resources to narrate world affairs from 1945 to the present. Events are addressed chronologically, with attention to both their motivations and their significance.

INTERNATIONAL SECURITY*An Analytical Survey

Michael Sheehan

2005 201pp

9781588262981 Paperback £21.95 / €24.00

Michael Sheehan provides a survey of the varied positions that scholars have adopted in interpreting 'security'. Revealing his own interpretation of security, he makes the case for a postpositivist conception that links human emancipation, justice, and peace.

Darren Hudson et al

2020 165pp

9781626378506 Paperback
£19.95 / €23.00

Provides an overview of the key theoretical explanations of terrorism, illustrating the analysis with case studies. Ranging from the religious and economic backgrounds of individual terrorists to the nature and outreach of terrorist organisations, this book offers fact-based, cutting-edge explanations of the motivations of terrorist groups.

MAKING SENSE OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS THEORY

Second Edition

Edited by Jennifer Sterling-Folker

2013 482pp

9781588268228 Paperback
£22.50 / €26.00

What does it mean to adopt a realist, or a world systems, or a green approach to international relations? Does the plethora of 'isms' have any relevance to the real world of global politics and policymaking? Making Sense of International Relations Theory addresses these questions by illustrating theories in action.

Barry Buzan, Ole Wæver & Jaap de Wilde

1997 300pp

9781555877842 Paperback £19.95 / €24.00

Two schools of thought now exist in security studies: traditionalists want to restrict the subject to politico-military issues; while wideners want to extend it to the economic, societal and environmental sectors. This text establishes a case for the broader agenda.

TERRORISM & COUNTERTERRORISM*A Comprehensive Introduction to Actors and Actions

Henry Prunckun & Troy Whitford

2018 269pp

9781626377608 Paperback £26.95 / €33.00

What is terrorism? How do terrorists operate - what are their means, targets, and motivations? How can governments prevent terrorist attacks from happening? Henry Prunckun and Troy Whitford address these questions in their systematic, comprehensive exploration of terrorism and counterterrorism.

COMING OF AGE IN THE WAR ON TERROR

Randa Abdel-Fattah

Feb 2021 352pp

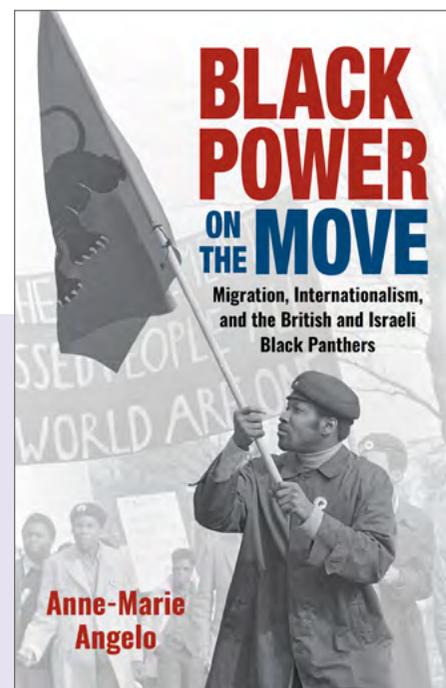

9781742236865 Paperback £19.95 / €23.00

The generation born at the time of the 9/11 attacks are turning 18. What has our changed world meant for them? We now have a generation – Muslim and non-Muslim – who have grown up only knowing a world at war on terror. These young people have been socialised in a climate of widespread Islamophobia, surveillance and suspicion. Drawing on local interviews but global in scope, this book is the first to examine the lives of a generation for whom the rise of the far-right, the discourse of Trump and Brexit and the growing polarisation of politics seems normal in the long aftermath of 9/11. It's about time we hear what they have to say.

Envisioning Cuba

For many Cubans, Fidel Castro's revolution represented deliverance from a legacy of inequality. For others, Cuba's turn to socialism made the pre-revolutionary period look like paradise lost. Michael Bustamante unsettles this familiar schism by excavating Cubans' contested memories of the Revolution's roots and results over its first twenty years.

CACICAS

The Indigenous Women Leaders of Spanish America, 1492-1825

Edited by Margarita R. Ochoa & Sara V. Guengerich

Mar 2021 344pp

9780806168623 Hardback £34.95 / €40.00

The term cacica was a Spanish linguistic invention, a female counterpart to caciques. But the term's meaning was adapted by natives, creating a new social stratum where it previously may not have existed. This book explores that transformation, a conscious construction and reshaping of identity from within.

Jan 2021 36pp

9789814881982 Paperback

€6.95 / €8.00

Trends in Southeast Asia

Since the first case of coronavirus was identified in Wuhan in December 2019, Indonesia has been assisting China in coping with the pandemic. In return, when the outbreak occurred in Indonesia, China also rendered support to its strategic partner. Overall, bilateral relations on the G-to-G level are amicable and even facilitate B-to-B contacts.

NON-STATE CHINESE ACTORS AND THEIR IMPACT ON RELATIONS BETWEEN CHINA AND MAINLAND SOUTHEAST ASIA

Enze Han

Jan 2021 19pp

9789814951333 Paperback €6.50 / €8.00

Trends in Southeast Asia

Studies on Chinese influence in Southeast Asia predominantly focus on the Chinese state. This paper argues that Chinese non-state actors and their daily encounters with local communities in Southeast Asia deserve equal attention as these interactions evidently produce friction at both the society-to-state and state-to-state levels.

HOW ASIA CAN SHAPE THE WORLD

From the Era of Plenty to the Era of Scarcities

Jorgen Orstrom Moller

2011 540pp
9789814311335 Paperback £46.50 / €51.00

Asia will redraw the map of economic progress over the next twenty-five years. Growth is necessary to solve economic and social problems, but harder to achieve as the age of plenty gives way to the age of scarcities. A new paradigm for economic thinking emerges to replace the one launched in the West 200 years ago.

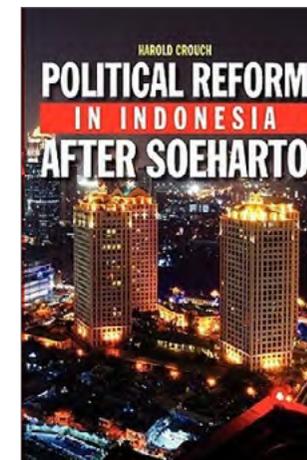

ISLAMISM AND DEMOCRACY IN INDONESIA

Piety and Pragmatism

Masdar Hilmy

2010 320pp
9789812309716 Paperback £46.50 / €51.00

Examines the complex reality behind Indonesian Islamists rejection of democracy. It focuses its analysis on two streams of Islamism: the two Islamist groups that seek extra-parliamentary means to achieve their goals (MMI and HTI); and the PKS Islamists who choose the existing political party system as a means to an end in their fight for power.

POLITICAL REFORM IN INDONESIA AFTER SOEHARTO

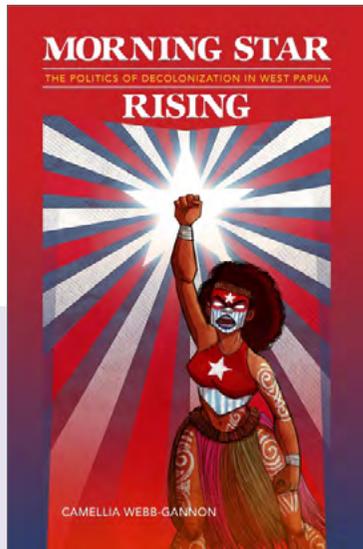

Harold Crouch

2010 390pp
9789812309204 Hardback
£36.95 / €41.00

Three decades of authoritarian rule in Indonesia came to a sudden end in 1998. Although the fall of Soeharto regime opened the way toward democratisation, conditions were by no means propitious for political reform. This book asks how political reform could proceed despite such unpromising circumstances.

That Indonesia's ongoing occupation of West Papua continues to be largely ignored by world governments, is one of the great moral and political failures of our time. Today, the Morning Star glimmers on the horizon, the supreme symbol of merdeka and a cherished sign of hope for the imminent arrival of peace and justice to West Papua. Differences in cultural performance and political diversity throughout the region are generating new, fruitful trajectories. Relevant beyond its West Papua focus, this book is essential reading for those interested in Pacific studies, Indigenous studies, activism, and decolonisation.
