WRITING THE BIG BOOK THE CREATION OF A.A.

William H. Schaberg
Sep 2019 844pp
9781949481280
Paperback
£39.50 / €43.00

Alcoholics Anonymous is one of the most significant self-help books of the twentieth century with an estimated thirty-seven million copies sold, translated into seventy languages. Released in 1939, the Big Book, as it is commonly known, has spawned a number of recovery communities around the world and remains a vibrant tool in introducing a plan of recovery from addiction in all its manifestations. The result of eleven years of in-depth research into the formative years of A.A., Writing the Big Book provides unprecedented access to the archives and reveals the inner workings of the early Fellowship, the conflicts, personalities, failures, and dispels myths of canonical texts.

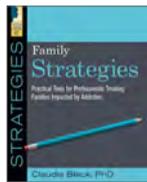

CHANGING COURSE
Healing from Loss, Abandonment, and Fear
Claudia Black
Feb 2019 200pp
9781949481129
Paperback
£15.95 / €18.00

"How do you go from living according to the rules - Don't Talk, Don't Trust, Don't Feel - to a life where you are free to talk and trust and feel?" Dr. Black asks. "You do this through a process that teaches you to go to the source of those rules, to question them, and to create new rules of your own," she explains. Using charts, exercises, checklists, and real-life stories of adult children of alcoholics, Dr. Black guides readers in healing from the fear, shame, and chaos of addiction.

Central Recovery Press (CRP) publishes books that include the latest research and best practices so that those seeking recovery from addiction, chronic pain, and mental health issues can have the greatest chance of success in their lives and find balance physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually.

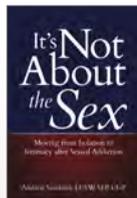

CRP's library covers the full spectrum of behavioural healthcare topics, including addiction treatment and recovery, co-occurring disorders, addiction and the family, parenting, relationships, trauma, grief and loss, and mindfulness.

FAMILY STRATEGIES
Practical Tools for Treating Families Impacted by Addiction
Claudia Black
Mar 2019 288pp

9781942094920 Paperback
£27.50 / €30.00

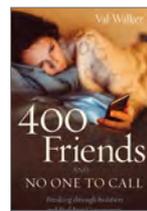

Provides a wealth of information and guidance proven to be effective with families challenged by addiction - whether to alcohol or other drugs, gambling, food, sex, etc. Through authoritative direction and reproducible handouts, professionals are given the structure and resources to help families they work with successfully transition to recovery.

IT'S NOT ABOUT THE SEX
Moving from Isolation to Intimacy after Sexual Addiction
Andrew Susskind
Sep 2019 232pp
9781949481068

Paperback £17.95 / €20.00

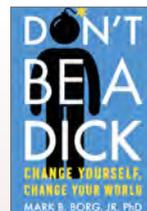

Out-of-control sexual behaviour results in broken relationships and deep anguish - sometimes even ending in death. Because most behavioural health professionals get minimal training in the area of sex addiction, It's Not about the Sex can help them better understand this disorder and how to more effectively assist their clients who struggle with it.

400 FRIENDS AND NO ONE TO CALL
Breaking Through Isolation and Building Community
Val Walker
Mar 2020 240pp
9781949481242

Paperback £17.95 / €20.00

We can be well connected, with 400 friends on Facebook and still have no one to count on. Val Walker spells out the how-tos for befriending our wider community, building a social safety net, and fostering our sense of belonging. On a deeper level, we are invited to befriend our loneliness, rather than feel ashamed of it, and open our hearts and minds to others trapped in isolation.

DON'T BE A DICK
Change Yourself, Change Your World
Mark B. Borg, Jr
Aug 2019 256pp
9781949481020
Paperback
£17.95 / €20.00

Anyone, at any time, can slip into being a dick - and many do. Yet Don't Be a Dick is especially for people who have noticed how their own behaviour tends to backfire, leaving them feeling isolated or uncertain why their seemingly justified actions consistently have such poor results. If you're constantly using the refrain, "It's not me, it's them," whenever something goes wrong, Mark B. Borg is here to tell you that it is, in fact, you. The good news is there is something you can do to reverse these behaviours and live a happier, more fulfilling life.

The American Council on Exercise (ACE) is a nonprofit organization with global reach that works to improve physical-activity levels by certifying exercise professionals and health coaches, publishing original research, convening experts on physical activity and health, working directly with community groups, and advocating for policies to get people from all walks of life moving. The 90,000 exercise professionals and health coaches certified by ACE are among the most respected in the world of fitness, helping people embrace physical activity and adopt healthier lifestyles.

STALINGRAD

David M. Glantz & Jonathan M. House

Oct 2019 640pp

9780700628797 Paperback £30.95 / € 35.00

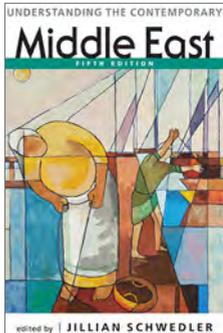

This is the long awaited one-volume campaign history from the leading experts of the decisive clash of Nazi and Soviet forces at Stalingrad; an abridged edition of the five volume Stalingrad Trilogy.

"Undoubtedly, the best researched narrative of Soviet-German battle during the period. . . . Thorough, informative, scrupulously accurate, and told with remarkable precision and reliability".

- Journal of Military History

"No literature review of the Nazi-Soviet war could be complete without the outstanding work done by David Glantz and Jonathan House. What they have done is illustrate how much more there is to the Battle of Stalingrad and why their more comprehensive account changes our understanding of the campaign. The late John Erickson wrote that the research of Glantz and House reflected an 'encyclopedic knowledge' of the Nazi-Soviet war and constituted a benchmark for excellence in the field."

UNDERSTANDING THE CONTEMPORARY MIDDLE EAST Fifth Edition

Jillian Schwedler

Nov 2019 480pp

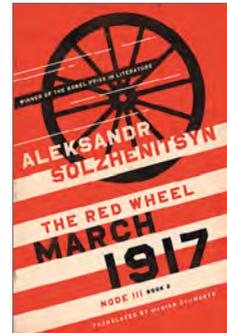

9781626378414 Paperback £22.50 / € 26.00

Understanding: Introductions to the States and Regions of the Contemporary World

The previous edition of Understanding the Contemporary Middle East was published soon after the Arab uprisings, and the authors - writing across disciplines - captured those moments of possibility.

Now, more than six years later, the Middle East is substantially changed, with three protracted civil wars, several retrenched authoritarian regimes, possibly one emerging democracy, and social and economic conditions that have been profoundly affected by the new political environment.

This thoroughly revised and updated edition explores both the impact of recent events in shaping the region and the continuities with established patterns of political, economic, and social relations.

MARCH 1917 The Red Wheel, Node III, Book 2

Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Translated by Marian Schwartz

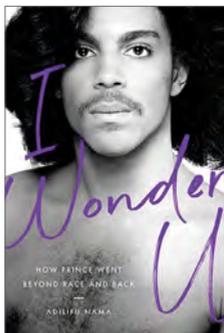

Nov 2019 700pp

9780268106850 Hardback £41.95 / € 47.00

The Center for Ethics and Culture Solzhenitsyn Series

The Red Wheel is Nobel Prize-winner Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn's multivolume epic work about the Russian Revolution. He spent decades writing about just four of the most important periods, or "nodes". This is the first time that the monumental March 1917 - the third node - has been translated into English. It tells the story of the Russian Revolution itself, during which the Imperial government melts in the face of the mob, and the giants of the opposition also prove incapable of controlling the course of events. Together, these factors condemn Russia to chaos, destruction, and ultimately Communist dictatorship.

The action of Book 2 (of four) of March 1917 is set during March 13-15, 1917, the Russian Revolution's turbulent second week. The revolution has already won inside the capital, Petrograd. News of the revolution flashes across all Russia through the telegraph system of the Ministry of Roads and Railways. But this is wartime, and the real power is with the army.

I WONDER U

How Prince Went beyond Race and Back

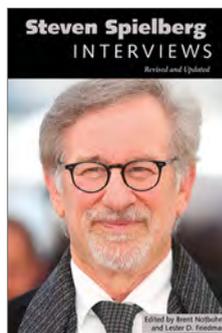

Adilifu Nama

Nov 2019 250pp, 27 b&w photos

9781978805163 Paperback £21.50 / € 24.00

In 1993, Prince infamously changed his name to a unique, unpronounceable symbol. Yet this was only one of a long string of self-reinventions orchestrated by Prince as he refused to be typecast by the music industry's limiting definitions of masculinity and femininity, of straightness and queerness, of authenticity and artifice, or of black music and white music.

Revealing how he continually subverted cultural expectations, I Wonder U examines the entirety of Prince's diverse career as a singer, multi-instrumentalist, songwriter, producer, record label mogul, movie star, and director. It shows how, by blending elements of R&B, rock, and new wave into an extremely videogenic package, Prince was able to overcome the colour barrier that kept black artists off of MTV. Yet even at his greatest crossover success, he still worked hard to retain his credibility among black music fans. In this way, Adilifu Nama suggests, Prince was able to assert a distinctly black political sensibility while still being perceived as a unique musical genius whose appeal transcended racial boundaries.

STEVEN SPIELBERG

Interviews, Revised and Updated

Edited by Lester D. Friedman & Brent Notbohm

Aug 2019 240pp

9781496824028 Paperback £24.95 / € 28.00

Conversations with Filmmakers Series

More than four decades after the premiere of his first film, Steven Spielberg (b. 1946) continues to be a household name whose influence on popular culture extends far beyond the movie screen. Now in his seventies, Spielberg shows no intention of retiring from directing or even slowing down. Since the publication of Steven Spielberg: Interviews in 2000, the filmmaker has crafted some of the most complex movies of his extensive career.

With this new collection of interviews, which includes eleven original interviews from the 2000 edition and nine new interviews, readers will recognise the themes that motivate Spielberg, the cinematic techniques he employs to create his feature films, and the emotional connection he has to his movies. The result is a nuanced and engaging portrait of the most popular director in American cinema history.

BLACK ATHENAThe Afroasiatic Roots of Classical CivilizationMartin Bernal*

Dec 2019 250pp

9781978810037 Paperback £84.95 / € 96.00

What is classical about Classical civilization? In one of the most audacious works of scholarship ever written, Martin Bernal challenges the foundation of our thinking about this question. Classical civilization, he argues, has deep roots in Afroasiatic cultures. But these influences have been systematically ignored, denied or suppressed.

Ancient Athenians were known to reuse stone artifacts, architectural blocks, and public statuary in the creation of new buildings and monuments. These construction decisions they were often a visible mechanism for shaping communal memory, especially in periods of social or political transformation. Sarah Rous develops the concept of upcycling to refer to this meaningful reclamation, the intentionality of reemploying each particular object for its specific new context.

Woolf, Faulkner, and the Novel Elegy of the First World War

Erin Penner

May 2019 248pp

9780813942971 Paperback £31.50 / € 36.00

In response to the devastating trauma of World War I, British and American authors wrote about grief. The need to articulate loss inspired moving novels by Virginia Woolf and William Faulkner. Erin Penner shows how these two modernist novelists took on the challenge of rewriting the literature of mourning for a new and difficult era.

CHILDREN OF THE RAVEN AND THE WHALE

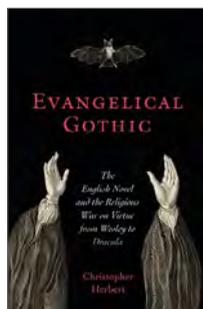

Visions and Revisions in American Literature

Caroline Chamberlin Hellman

Dec 2019 206pp

9780813943602 Paperback £31.50 / € 36.00

Taking its cue from Perry Miller's 1956 classic of American literary criticism, The Raven and the Whale, Caroline Chamberlin Hellman examines ways in which contemporary multi-ethnic American writers of the United States have responded to nineteenth- and early twentieth-century texts historically central to the American literary canon.

EVANGELICAL GOTHIC

The English Novel and the Religious War on Virtue from Wesley to Dracula

Christopher Herbert

Nov 2019 272pp

9780813943404 Hardback

£47.95 / € 54.00

Victorian Literature and Culture

Explores the bitter antagonism that prevailed between two defining institutions of nineteenth-century Britain: Evangelicalism and the popular novel. Herbert contends that the realistic popular novel of the time was constitutionally alien to Evangelical ideology and even, to some extent, took its opposition to that ideology as its core function.

Oct 2019 264pp

9780813232423 Paperback £37.50 / € 42.00

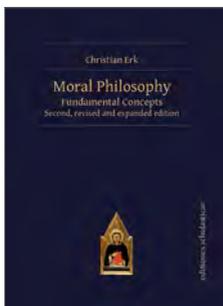

Shows how the whole of the natural law, as understood in the Aristotelian Thomistic tradition, is contained implicitly in human dignity. Human dignity means existing for one's own good, and not as a mere means to an alien good. But what is the true human good? This question is answered with a careful analysis of Aristotle's definition of happiness.

Pittsburgh Series in Composition, Literacy and Culture

Studies of women's rhetorics to date have focused largely on the civic arena and the home. These two spheres are clearly important, but they ignore another vital arena: the workplace. Women at Work presents fifteen chapters that centre on gender, rhetoric, and work in the US during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

Joanne Payton

Foreword by Deeyah Khan

Sep 2019 192pp, 17 illustrations

9781978801714 Paperback £24.95 / € 29.00

Politics of Marriage and Gender, Global

Provides a description of "honour"-based violence that focuses on the structure of the family rather than the perpetrator's culture. Joanne Payton argues that within societies primarily organised by familial connections, women's "honour" is a form of symbolic capital within a "political economy" in which marriage organises intergroup connections.

USER'S GUIDE TO PLASTIC

Second Edition

Ulf Bruder

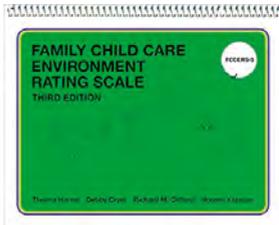

Jul 2019 376pp

9781569907344 Paperback £34.95 / € 39.90

Many technical books about plastics are too theoretical and difficult to read. The intention of this book is to offer something completely different: it is easy to read with many examples taken from everyday life. It is suitable for readers at secondary school and university levels, and can be used for training activities in industry as well as for self-studies.

Included are over 600 colour images to illustrate the wide variety of plastics and process workflows used today. The book also contains a number of computer-based tools that can be downloaded from the author's website. With comprehensive coverage, this is probably the most versatile plastics handbook ever written!

New in the second edition are much-expanded content (new chapter) on extrusion, new colour figures, a new layout, and corrections throughout. A bonus download of working Excel tools is provided to supplement the book content.

Critical Issues in Crime and Society

There is powerful evidence that the colonization of Indigenous people was and is a crime, and that that crime is on-going. The consequences of this oppression and criminal victimization is perhaps the critical factor explaining why Indigenous people today are overrepresented as victims and offenders in the settler colonist criminal justice systems.

Martin Hils & Francois Loeser

Sep 2019 195pp

9781470452728 Paperback £56.95 / €61.00

Student Mathematical Library, Vol. 89

Presents mathematical logic to students who are interested in what this field is but have no intention of specializing in it. The point of view is to treat logic on an equal footing to any other topic in the mathematical curriculum. The book starts with a presentation of naive set theory, the theory of sets that mathematicians use on a daily basis. Each subsequent chapter presents one of the main areas of mathematical logic.
