MACARTHUR-BATES COMMUNICATIVE DEVELOPMENT INVENTORIES (CDI)

Third Edition

Virginia A. Marchman et al

Used in both research and clinical settings, these parent report instruments help speech and language therapists and other professionals screen children, develop a prognosis for children with language delays, plan effective intervention, monitor progress, and meet mandates for including parent input in child evaluation. The CDIs include measures for three age ranges:

- Words and Gestures (ages 8 to 18 months).
With this comprehensive instrument, parents document the child's understanding of hundreds of early vocabulary items, and the form yields separate indexes of words understood and words produced. Then, parents record communicative and symbolic gestures the child has tried or completed.
- Words and Sentences (ages 16 to 30 months).
Parents use this comprehensive instrument to document the child's production of hundreds of words, record the child's use of early forms of grammar, and provide written examples of the child's three longest utterances.
- CDI-III (ages 31 to 37 months).
This shorter, single-sheet tool measures expressive vocabulary and grammar.
