Aryeh Malkish

Foreword by Alexander Kazarnovsky

Aryeh Malkish, a Ukrainian Jew, was an engineering student when the KGB arrested him in 1969 for organising a group of political dissidents. He was sent to the gulag for seven years, where Ukrainians accounted for nearly half of Russia's political prisoners. Originally published in 1978, his memoir vividly describes life in a Soviet labour camp.

Agatha Christie stands as the bestselling novelist of all time and, in terms of total sales in all genres, places only behind the Christian Bible and Shakespeare. Since the publication of The Mysterious Affair at Styles in 1920, Christie's fiction has withstood the envy of her peers and the snipes of critics, while garnering the admiration of countless readers. Tison Pugh takes a fresh look at the contemporary world's most popular author.

ALTAR AND CHURCHPrinciples of Liturgy from Early Christianity

Stefan Heid

An altar is a place of sacrifice or an offering table as a place of worship for deities. Whether what Christians use in worship today may be an altar is a matter of dispute among the denominations. Since the liturgical reform of the Second Vatican Council, the altar has been the focus of many redesigns of Catholic church rooms.

AQUINAS ON PROPHECY
Wisdom and Charism in the Summa Theologiae

Paul M. Rogers

Examining Aquinas's treatment of prophecy in the Summa Theologiae, Paul Rogers reveals how prophetic testimony is central to the understanding of Christian revelation, faith, and theology, since it presents a model for a pedagogy that attempts to affect intellectual and moral transformation through communicating knowledge about God.

THE PASSION OF LOVE IN THOMAS AQUINAS'S SUMMA THEOLOGIAE

Joseph Gordon

Foreword by Dominic Legge

Thomistic Ressourcement Series, Vol. 24

Offers an introduction to three questions on love according to St. Thomas Aquinas (Summa Theologiae I-II, qq. 26-28). These three questions reflect on the nature of love, the causes of love, and the effects of love. It is thus an introduction to the entire phenomenon of love, both as a bodily passion and an act of the will.
